

Student Satisfaction Survey: 2019-20

Student Satisfaction Survey was conducted for the academic year 2019-20. The questionnaire was framed covering three significant areas –Teaching and Learning, Curriculum, Students Support Survey. The survey incorporated competency based subjective questions regarding four point scale- Outstanding, Good, Satisfactory, Unsatisfactory. The response of 213 students was received and analysed and brought to the notice of the administrators and all the stake holders.

The major findings of Students Satisfaction Survey 2019-20 are as follow:

- In Total, there were five questions asked under the survey regarding the first component Teaching Learning Process comprising the questions – teachers' regularity, preparedness for the classes, teaching aides, teaching in terms of clarity and understandability, accessibility of the teachers to the students. More than the half of the student respondents (52%) expressed their happiness regarding regularity of the teachers, while 47.4% of respondents opined that the teachers taught the students with preparation and complete the syllabus in time. Overall, 71.9% of the students expressed their satisfaction (those who rated good and outstanding) regarding Teaching and Learning Process. Only 6.7% students are not satisfied about Teaching Learning Process.
- In the same manner, six questions were asked regarding the second component Curriculum which was implemented in our college during the year academic year 2019-20. 73.6% of the students expressed their satisfaction over the curriculum. Whereas 6.5% of the students expressed their dissatisfaction over the Curriculum.
- 14 questions were asked under the survey which related to Students Support Survey comprising of scholarship, healthcare support, library, college website, and drinking water, greenery on the campus, classroom infrastructure, and canteen. Out of 213 respondents 70.44% expressed their happiness over student Support Service. 13.01% of the students expressed their dissatisfaction over the Student Support Service.
