

ABOUT THE GRIEVANCE CELL

The Grievance Cell was set up in the academic year 2006-2007 under the chairmanship of Prof (smt) I.M. Jamakhandi. This cell was set up to redress the problems put forward by the students. The Grievance Cell committee meets to look into problems of students like delay in issuing bus pass, identity cards, non-availability of facilities in hostels or in canteen etc. The Grievance cell meets at least twice in the academic year and also when the problems of the students is urgent and needs attention. In 2010 the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell was set up to address the problems of eve-teasing and adam-teasing. It was functioning under the umbrella of the Grievance Cell. In 2013 the Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell got its separate existence as an independent Committee.

The Grievance Cell has a Suggestion Box which is maintained by the Student Welfare Officer. The complaints of the students are put into the suggestion box. The Student Welfare Officer and the Grievance Cell chairperson, as well as the committee members meet from time to time to look into the problems of the students and bring these problems to the notice of the Principal of the College who takes necessary action. Following are the members of the committee: 1) Prof. K.S.
