1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The Karnatak College is a constituent college of Karnatak University. The College implements curriculum prescribed by the Karnatak University, Dharwad and is delivered in a systematic, time-bound, and transparent process. The updated course structure, with names and combinations of papers offered by the college, is specified in the Admission Prospectus and on the college website. The Academic Calendar/time table is prepared in the beginning of the academic year and circulated to all the departments and heads of departments distribute the workload to the faculty as well take care to monitor all the work related to Internal Exams and Assessment. Teachers are given Attendance books and Work-Diary to record and maintain the same. Timely completion of the syllabus and the performance of students are reviewed in Departmental Meetings. Classroom teaching/blended teaching is supplemented with audio-visual resources, ICT tools, practicals, remedial classes, and a regular feedback mechanism. Continuous evaluation is conducted through internal tests/assignments/projects/seminars and group discussions. Mentoring is given to students to monitor the performance of the students in the academic front and provide remedial teaching. The College encourages faculty members to participate in Orientation/ Refresher Courses/STCs/FDPs/Workshops/Seminars and to be on BOS/BOE so as to update their knowledge and improve the teaching methods to ensure effective delivery of curriculum.
